

- Computing systems may not be turned on or used during instructional time, except for instructional and educational purposes with the explicit approval of the teacher or staff member in charge.
- Computing devices may be used during the following non-instructional times of the school day: Student Lunch time.

During extended day programs:

- The same policy applies as during the day.

During school-sponsored programs or activities outside the school:

- Computing devices may be used for instructional and educational purposes.

Portable Music & Entertainment systems may be used as set forth below:

During the school day:

- Portable music and entertainment systems may not be turned on or used in classrooms, offices, or hallways while classes are in session except for instructional and educational purposes with the explicit approval of the teacher or other staff member in charge.
- Portable music and entertainment systems may be used during the following non-instructional times of the school day: Student Lunch time.

During extended day programs:

- The same policy applies as during the day.

During school-sponsored programs or activities outside the school:

- Portable music and entertainment systems may be used for instructional and educational purposes.

E. Confiscation and return of electronic items

Students who refuse to comply with the expectations outlined above regarding cell phones, computing devices, and portable music and entertainment systems may be subjected to any or all of the following measures (where appropriate, measures will be instituted in a progressive manner):

- warnings
- confiscation of item and return at end of school day
- confiscation of item and return following parent conference
- confiscation of item and return following student entering into behavioral contract
- revocation of privilege to bring item to school.

F. Discipline

Students who use cell phones, computing devices, and/or portable music and entertainment system in violation of any provision of the DOE's Discipline Code, the school's policy, Chancellor Regulation A-413, and/or the DOE's Internet Acceptable Use and Safety Policy ("ISUSP") will be subject to discipline in accordance with the guidance interventions and disciplinary responses set forth in the Discipline Code.